

Diana Nesko

Diana Nesko grew up dancing Spanish style dance (salsa, bachata) at 7 as an important part of her part of her culture. As a young teen she performed and choreographed for school talent shows and showcases and discovered ballet and jazz in high school. She attended the University of Maryland to earn a Bachelor of Arts in Dance focused on Modern and Contemporary Dance. Diana enjoys working with young people to help them grow more confident in their skills and define their own artistry. Diana has 10+ years of teaching experience including teaching at the recreational and competitive level. She has experience in various dance styles and particularly enjoys teaching ballet and lyrical. Diane has assisted and led dance summer camps, intensives and workshops. Diana is passionate to share the love of dance and believes in the power of the dance community fostering authenticity, creativity, and connection.