

Stefanie Edwards

Stefanie Edwards is from Canada where she grew up dancing Slovenian Folk dance and performed at the annual Folklorama Festival with her group for many years. Stefanie was also a competitive ice skater. Stefanie moved to the US in 2000 and to Cheyenne in 2005 when her husband Floyd was stationed here. Stefanie enrolled daughters Samantha and Sabrina at En Avant Dance Studio where they thrived and now teach. Stefanie believes that physical ability or age don't necessarily keep anyone from trying something new, especially dance. Stef is extremely grateful for all the adult classes at En Avant and participates in aerial hoop, tap, yoga and is pursuing her yoga certification. When not at En Avant Stefanie is a member of several bands at LCCC and a member of the Cheyenne Brass Band and City Band. She teaches piano, does some photography and is forever trying out new crafts.
